

The Stories Jesus Told

Sermon #2

Dr. Joseph L. Bunce

The Two Debtors: The Glory of Grace. Luke 7:36-50

- Key thought—Jesus is a Savior who _____ even the biggest sinners.
- We must put ourselves in the place of the _____. Moral, serious about _____, and sought to live a separated _____.
- He was even taking a _____ himself by having Jesus over for _____, the “friend of sinners.”

The dinner and the uninvited guest. Luke 7:36-39

- We must put ourselves in the place of the woman who _____ the dinner party. Courageous, yet fearful, with _____ of gratitude.
- Jesus the _____, knows even, what we are _____. Luke 7:39
- Holy men don't allow themselves to be touched by _____. A real prophet knows the _____ and she is one.

The parable of two debtors. Luke 7:40-43

- Jesus asked the _____, by name, Simon. Luke 7:40
- The parable and the _____.
- Two _____. One owes 500 denarii, the other owes 50.
- Both are forgiven, which one _____ the most?

The picture of comparisons and profound gratitude.

Luke 7:44-50

- Jesus turned Simon's _____ to force the Pharisee to compare his actions and this “sinful woman's.” 7:44-48
- The _____ dinner guests choke on the crow, Jesus served. 7:49
- Leaving Jesus with _____ and _____. 7:50

Personal Application:

1. If we are honest, we have all _____ with judging others.
2. When you have been in the _____ of Jesus you either depart with _____ and _____ or pride and piousness.
3. Have you received the forgiveness of your sin?