

The Stories Jesus Told

Sermon #5 The Good Samaritan Luke 10:25-37

Dr. Joseph L. Bunce

When the _____ laid a _____ : Luke 10:25

- Who asked the question?- A scribe, the experts in Jewish law.
- What posture did he take?- He stood up.
- What was his motive? - To test Jesus, the Teacher.
- What question was asked? - What must I do?

A question _____ with _____ ? Luke 10:26

- What is written in the law?
- How do you read it?

Only one _____ is _____ ? Luke 10:27

- There is a direct but partial quote from Leviticus 19:18 and Deuteronomy 6:5.
- The scribe knew what was in the law but did not know how to apply the law. He failed to answer, "How do you read it?"

The scribe is now _____ by the _____ he has laid.

Luke 10:28

- You do know the law.
- Now go and live it.

The scribe's _____ to _____ himself. Luke 10:29

- Who is my neighbor? The lawyer is looking for loophole.
- Now Jesus answers his question, not with another question but with a story.

The story has _____ . Luke 10:30-35

- 1) A victim of a crime, beaten, striped and robbed.
- 2) The priest with a good reason. There were sacrifices to be made. In the days served in teams for two weeks out of the year. He may have feared that by touching this man he would become unclean and unable to perform his duties. Numbers 19:11 He would not be able to do his job for seven days.

Now _____ asks a _____ . Luke 10:36-37

- Who showed mercy to a beaten and broken man?
- The Lawyers answer. Luke 10:37
- Jesus command, was a call to repentance. "You go and do the same." The Greek term for repentance, metanoia, denotes a change of mind, a reorientation, a fundamental transformation of outlook, of man's vision of the world and of himself, and a new way of loving others and God.

Now lets look at this story thru _____ .

Jesus is our Good Samaritan.

- He comes and touches the bleeding and broken. He touches and raises the dead.
- He places Grace above the Law.
- He tears down the walls of race and prejudice.
- He pays a debt he does not owe.
